

THIS IS THE TIME

JOSH YOUNG

INTRO: E F#m G#m A

E C#m A
This is the day, when freedom sings
E C#m A
When Your glory fills the earth
E C#m A
There is a song that plays on these city streets
E C#m A E F#m G#m A (2X'S)
That only Your Spirit could birth

We have gathered in search of something more
In search of something real
Open wide You ancient doors
Send Your rain, send Your rain

E B
This is the time, the heavens are opening
A E
Your people are worshipping in Spirit and truth
E B
This is Your song, a sound that's beyond the sound
A E F#m G#m A
These are the days, when Heaven touches earth

This is the day when the dead will rise again
When our spirits will soar
And the dreams You placed inside our hearts
Will in this moment come forth

E
Heaven's doors are open wide
A
I can see the light that shines
E A
It's the glory of Your eyes
E
There is hope for the hopeless
A
There is strength for those in need
E A
We will run to You, we are free, we are free
