JOSH YOUNG

G G/F# Em D C G/B

There are times in my life, when I feel so alone

D C

Like a part of me is dying

G G/F# Em D C G/B

And at the end of the day, when the sun no longer shines

D C

You may see my tears fallin

But I called upon Your name

Am7 D

And You showed me Your face

G D Am7

Your loving-kindness oh, Lord is better than life

C D

It's the joy of my salvation

G D Am7

And I will wait on You Lord, and I'll fly away

C D G G/F# Em D C G/B D C

And rest in the wonder of Your ways

Seasons come and seasons go, but still Your love remains

You are so faithful

You hold my tears in Your hand, and You wipe away the stains

You put the pieces back together

But I called upon Your name, and You showed me Your face
